

Gabriel De Silva

Internationally studied and acclaimed master artist

New York's
Spanish Harlem,
Puerto Rico,
Brazil,
Africa,
Los Angeles,
Hawaii

Every Region of influence in this modern master's color sphere brings with it a key to unlock a new gateway to man's inner soul.

We are where we've been!"

Recognized early as an art prodigy, Gabriel De Silva found inspiration in the city streets of New York and with the help of his teachers, gained full scholarship to the Arts Student League of New York and a subsequent four year award to study at the Rhode Island School of Design.

His talents do not stop at painting. Gabriel De Silva is accomplished in the performing arts as well. "My education started at Variety Recording Studios as a junior production assistant and progressed through television acting roles with George C. Scott as well as off Broadway stints in Alice in Wonderland."

Education:

- Emerstine McLending Acting School, class of 1968
- Full scholarship to the Art Student's League of New York City
- Full scholarship to Rhode Island School of Design - BA
- Brown University's selected scholar to Educators to Africa
- Master of Arts, Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, New York

Professionally, Gabriel De Silva has directed workshops in drawing and painting at the college level, worked for the New York City, City Arts Program exploring social arts, social problems of the inner city, collaborated on set design for the Los Angeles Cultural Arts Center, and locally in Hawaii volunteers at the Richardson Beach Education Program teaching mixed media creative techniques to disadvantaged students